

British Land
Reclamation
Society

Promoting Sustainable Land Use

* FREE “BREAKFAST” SEMINAR OFFER ***

“WHERE NOW FOR LAND REGENERATION? – IMPLICATIONS OF THE SPENDING REVIEW AND CHANGES TO THE PLANNING SYSTEM”

Birmingham

Repeating the topic of a successful first event held in Manchester earlier this year, the BLRS are pleased to invite you to the second of its new series of “Breakfast seminars”

Date: Thursday 7th July 2011

Time: Arrive 8:00 for 8:30 start – end 10:00 (with light refreshments provided)

Venue: Davis Langdon’s Office, Colmore Plaza, Colmore Circus Queensway, Birmingham B4 6AT

Speakers:

- Dr Richard Boyle – Brownfield Technical Consultant, Homes and Communities Agency
“The New Planning Framework – Radical changes and the Localism policy, how will it affect the regeneration process?”
- Hilary Allen – Associate, Land Development, Davis Langdon, An AECOM Company
“Getting the most out of brownfield remediation – probabilistic costings and techniques for the better management of commercial risk”
- Followed by an open discussion of prospects for the future development under the government’s proposed new deregulation and localism policies.

Chair: Euan Hall, BLRS Chairman

Registration: The seminar is open to both BLRS members and non-members. Please contact Bill Baker bill.baker@conland.fsworld.co.uk to book your place.

NB: Numbers are limited to a maximum of 50 so please book early!

Those of you based in other areas of the country will be interested to note that we are looking to run similar events in other parts of the country in due course – please let us know if you would be interested in attending.